FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Angelus to Present Concert at Holy Cross (Pawleys Island)

Mt. Vernon, IN Mar. 25, 2013- Angelus, a premiere vocal ensemble from the Mt. Vernon Senior High School Fine Arts Academy (Mt. Vernon, IN) will present an evening concert at Holy Cross Faith Memorial Episcopal Church (113 Baskervill Drive, Pawleys Island) on Friday, July 19, 2013. The concert is slated to begin at 7:00pm.

Whether the stark beauty of an 11th century chant, the rich harmonic language of a contemporary Irish work or the rusticism of a Sacred Harp tune, Angelus finds its voice in the wide range of sacred works it performs. Completely unique among American high school ensembles, Angelus is dedicated to the performance of sacred music of varied religious traditions and historical periods. Angelus is comprised of six young women who perform music ranging from medieval chant and polyphony to the American Sacred Harp tradition as well as contemporary American and Irish works.

Angelus has appeared in concert in cathedrals and churches in Chicago, Cincinnati, Dallas, Ft. Worth, Indianapolis, New York, San Francisco and St. Louis and as well as churches throughout the Midwest. They have been featured on "Celtic Connections" on National Public Radio and in Europe on the Dutch program, "Song from Ireland".

The concert is free and open to the public. A free will offering will be received and the ensembles CD's will be available for purchase.

Reviews

"Angelus was an absolute delight! Who would have thought that a group of teenagers might have the discipline to study and bring to life such a broad range of music, from the Medieval world to southern harmony and beyond?!" Dr. Stephan Casurella (Director of Music, Christ Church Cathedral, Cincinnati)

Ladies, I am blown away -- just watched your concert video and have shared it with the other members of Anonymous 4. We are honored to hear our arrangements in your angelic voices and from your musical hearts."
Susan Hellauer (Anonymous 4)

"Well done ladies - a lovely recording - I am very proud." (Michael McGlynn commenting on the Angelus recording "Michael McGlynn: Music for Women's Voices")
